On Screen @ The Hyde: *A Lasting First Impression

Jun 15, 6pm

$12 / *$10 members for Wood Members!

Rating: 18+ for language, violence & subject matter

A widow seeking closure tracks down her husband's mistress in the most peculiar way.

A young woman named Jess finds out her husband was murdered in an alleyway. To make matters worse, she suspects he was cheating on her when she finds messages on his phone to someone named Charleigh. Jess is feeling a range of emotions and tries to get the "mistress" to meet with her at a local bar in order to get closure. While Jess waits for the mistress to arrive, she encounters a Drag Queen named Naomi, who unexpectedly helps her unravel the truth.

Join local film makers Christopher Gaunt and Kayla Romanowski for a public premiere of the short film A Lasting First Impression. A conversation with film makers and actors will directly follow the screening.

Lecture: David Smith: Music, Dance, and Community with Paula Wisotzki

Aug 17, 6pm

$12 / *Free for Wood Members!

In this talk, Smith scholar Paula Wisotzki will explore the artist's interest in dance and music through paintings, drawings, and sculptures from the late 1930s and the 1940s. She will highlight interactions with dancers and musicians who inspired his explorations of these subjects.

Paula Wisotzki is Professor of Art History in the Department of Fine and Performing Arts at Loyola University Chicago. Her research explores the intersection of art, dance and music in Smith's work and others in his circle.
